

FIVE POINTS WOMAN BURNS TO DEATH

MRS. MYRTLE WAPLES KILLED, JESSE RILEY CRITICAL WHEN GASOLINE IN AUTO EXPLODES

Lighted Match Dropped on Floor of Coupe Into Pool of Gasoline Caused Disaster South of Adelphi Early Wednesday Morning; Riley Not Expected To Live; Woman Is Burned To Crisp.

Mrs. Myrtle Waples, aged 47, was burned to death and Jesse Riley, 37, garage-man, both of Five Points, is in a critical condition at Berger hospital suffering from burns after an accident in Saltcreek-twp, Hocking-co, several miles south of Adelphi at 4 a. m. Wednesday. Riley is not expected to survive his injuries.

A gasoline explosion is thought to have been the cause of the fire which took Mrs. Waples' life. The pair had been in Hocking-co all night at the home of John Ross, where it is reported they went to sell a radio. They were returning at 4 a. m. when Riley is said to have dropped a lighted match on the floor of his 1924 Ford coupe. The gasoline tank, under the seat of the car, did not have a cap on it and while the car was going over the rolling country in Hocking-co gasoline had seeped out of the tank onto the floor. As soon as the lighted match hit the floor the gasoline exploded and the car was a flaming holocaust.

CAR TURNS OVER
Riley drove to the side of the road and the car fell over on its right side. He was thrown through the top of the car and free of the flames but Mrs. Waples was trapped with no means of escape. Her body was burned to a crisp.

The driver of the car, able to stand up, ran to the nearest house and summoned help. By the time assistance was obtained Mrs. Waples was dead. Her body could be seen burning in the flaming wreck but nothing could be done for her.

Jacob Karshner, constable at Adelphi, reported Wednesday afternoon that he found a can containing a quart of alleged whiskey at the side of the wrecked Ford when he investigated the accident. Dr. Miller, Hocking-co coroner, also was probing the wreck Wednesday afternoon.

CONDITION CRITICAL
When news of the accident was learned in the Laurelville and Adelphi vicinity, many persons hurried to the scene. Dr. Hemminger of Adelphi was summoned and took the injured man to his office. After aiding him to the best he could, he ordered the man be taken to Berger hospital, where attaches report he is suffering serious burns about the face, both hands and feet with the bottom of one foot being burned badly. His condition is reported extremely critical.

The body of Mrs. Waples was taken to the morgue of an Adelphi funeral director where it was released to C. E. Hill, Williamsport funeral director, Wednesday afternoon.

Riley is well-known in the Five Points vicinity and operates a garage there.

HOUSE PASSES GAS FUND LAW; OHIO TO FIGHT

New Measure, with Senatorial Approval, would Give Twps. More Cash

MERRELL IS OPPOSED
Charges State Program Would be Curtailed

COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 18.—Battle clouds hung over the house and senate chambers today following the lower branch's action late yesterday in passing the Secret-Bostwick bill doubling the township's share of the gasoline tax funds.

The bill, which passed by the overwhelming majority of 113 to 6, would reduce the state's share of the gas tax from 62 1-2 to 52 per cent and would increase the share of the counties from 15 to 18 per cent. The share of metropolitan centers would be increased from 17 1-2 to 20 per cent and the counties from five to ten per cent.

In this form the measure today was placed in the hands of the senate, which has under consideration the Nickels bill, providing for a "secondary" state highway system, designating 4,000 miles of roads to comprise the new system, and authorizing expenditure of $2,300,000 for improvement of "secondary" roads during the first year. The Nickels bill, it was understood, has the endorsement of the present state administration, particularly Highway Director O. W. Merrell, who objects to the Secret-Bostwick measure "for economic reasons."

"The state cannot afford to have its share of the gas tax reduced, for it would not then be able to carry on the full operations of the highway department," Merrell contends.

WOULD AID COUNTIES
Under provisions of the Nickels bill, the highway department would take over part of the road work now performed by the counties, in turn, to take over some of the township work. Thus, it was pointed out, would enable the townships to improve additional side, or mud, roads.

House members, speaking for the Secret-Bostwick bill, however, indicated a lack of confidence in highway department promises for township road improvement.

Despite assurances given by highway department officials, it was stated, townships have been waiting in vain for many years for adequate road improvements in the rural districts.

It authorizes pensions not to exceed $25 a month for persons over 70 years of age who have no other means of support. The measure provides for the establishment of a division of state aid in the state welfare department.

Joliet Convicts Plan New Riots

JOLIET, Ill., March 18.—Rumors of an impending general outbreak among the 3,500 convicts in the state penitentiary here were current today as the rebellious inmates attempted to dictate "peace" terms to authorities.

Still locked in their cells where they have been deprived of the usual recreation periods the 1,100 convicts continued yelling and pounding in defiance of prison orders. The din carries into other buildings on the prison grounds, causing a general unrest, according to officials.

Leaders of the rebellious convicts have urged their fellows to start a petition incorporating the peace terms with the intention of submitting the petition to the legislative committee now investigating the prison.

Renewed outbreaks at both Stateville and the old prison sent five convicts to hospital beds and four more to solitary confinement yesterday. The disturbances set in motion an investigation which uncovered reports that a plot was afoot in the new Stateville quarters to dynamite the buildings.

It was also learned that 1,000 knives and other implements are missing from the penitentiary kitchens and tool houses, leading to the belief that many of the prisoners can arm themselves on short notice.

CHARGE TEACHERS ARE IN POLITICS

COLUMBUS, O., March 18.—Charges that school teachers in some places "are coerced into toeing the political mark under threats of removal from their employers" today were in the hands of the state senate committee on education.

Senator Roy J. Gillen (R) of Wellston made the allegation last night during a committee hearing on his bill to prohibit school employees from taking any part in political campaigns of any kind.

Interference by school heads "has reached a point in some institutions where school teachers are giving preference to pupils who happen to be children in families in which elders are giving their political support to desired candidates and parties," Senator Gillen declared.

SALE PRICE IS $25,000
Report Sale to Be Contested by Several

Promises to continue the operation of the Sears-Nichols Company in this city and Chillicothe, Washington C. H., and Franklin, Ohio, Mound City, Ill., and Pentwater, Mich., was made by W. R. Delay, president of the Yedall Canning Company, Inc., Cleveland, which this week purchased the Sears-Nichols business at a receiver's sale of the Chillicothe courthouse. The extremely low price of $25,000 paid for the property and Delay provided a check for $10,000 to secure the purchase.

The purchase included all the property of the company with the exception of the three plants in Kentucky which will go on the block next Wednesday.

From what can be learned of the company it is one just formed for the purpose of operating the purchased plant and but few details are at this time obtainable as the company's offices are in Cleveland.

These are the only holdings of the company at this time and as soon as the sale is completed next week by Judge Bostwick in Columbus the plants will be taken over to begin work of the production of canned goods.

11 LOST IN HOTEL FIRE

Flames Sweep Lynn, Mass., Apartment House; $200,000 Structure Ruined.

LYNN, Mass., March 18.—Flames today swept through Hotel Lenox, a five story brick structure in the heart of the business district and when they were finally controlled by firemen of this and five surrounding cities and towns eleven guests of the eighty-five in the building were unaccounted for.

Ten hotel guests were taken to hospitals, five suffering serious burns and the $200,000 structure was in ruins.

Private homes, apartment houses and private hospitals were searched for the missing in the expectation that a majority had found shelter after fleeing from the blazing hotel by way of fire escapes, down stairs, over fire ladders and by jumping.

Meanwhile, firemen grouped through the smoldering ruins—a difficult task as three floors to the hotel collapsed.

Three firemen were injured and treated at hospitals.

Ohio Needs To Spend Much On Institutions

COLUMBUS, O., March 19.—Governor George White and Welfare Director John J. McSweeney were agreed today that Ohio needs to spend at least $10,184,750 for additions and betterments at state institutions during 1931 and 1932. The amount which will be asked by the Democratic administration in its attempt to carry out campaign promises of modernizing welfare homes and penal institutions is more than $100,000 in excess of the total asked by Former Governor Myers V. Cooper's welfare department and $3,000,000 greater than the total recommended by the Republican executive after cutting and slashing of every request.

NEW HOSPITAL

Expenditure of $250,000 for a new hospital at the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Home at Sandusky, as recommended by the governor and his welfare director, is the principal explanation for the increase.

The suggestion that $125,000 be spent at the Longview State Hospital for a new cottage for inmates is another reason for the difference between Republican and Democratic requests.

An increase of almost $100,000 over needs expressed by the last administration for the operation of the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster would provide for the erection of a butcher shop, soulery and farm building there.

McSweeney did not differ with his predecessor, Hal Griswold, on the amount needed at the Ohio Penitentiary, scene of last spring's tragic fire.

Both sought $487,500 for buildings and land. The principal structures requested are an administration, storeroom and school building, a new cell block, and a hospital.

McSweeney announced himself as being definitely opposed to a proposed expansion of Grafton State Farm at this time and said he would prefer to see better use made of the Apple Creek Institution for the Feeble-Minded near Wooster.

He said the state also sought to take advantage of all its available facilities at the Dayton State hospital.

WATCHES OVERHEAD

"I am opposed to setting up a new system and consequently developing a new overhead expense for the state when we may avoid that result by using institutions already established to their capacity," he said referring to the Grafton farm.

"Apple Creek," he complained, now has only two cottages, but it might well have six without much additional overhead.

The state finds itself in a position where it ought to convert the Apple Creek Institution for the Feeble-Minded into an asylum for the insane, so overcrowded are the insane hospitals, McSweeney said.

He indicated, however, that he is not ready to ask the legislature to make any changes in its original plans by which Apple Creek became a home for the Feeble-Minded.

His criticism of the proposed expansion of the Grafton farm was believed here today to be sufficient to defeat the Roberts bill, which already has passed the house.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT!

FIVE million modern mothers will tell you that children DO cry for Fletcher's Castoria. For mothers always give a few drops of this pure vegetable preparation when a child has any of the symptoms that tell of sluggish bowels, colic, or other upsets. When tiny tongues are coated and breath is bad. When a child is restless; irritable. Always soothing and comforting to an infant—yet it is effective for children in their teens. You never have to coax children to take Castoria; they love its taste. Be ready for the next case of sour stomach, constipation, or other need for Castoria! When buying look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on wrapper.

DON'T BE A SLAVE TO LAXATIVES

Mrs. E. Gabbard, 301 W. 5th St., Newport, Ky., says, "My husband and I were actually slaves to laxatives, continually dosing ourselves with something to relieve constipation. Just couldn't stop. It got to be a habit. We even gave our children laxatives in candy form. Little did we realize that we were only aggravating and not reaching the cause of the constipation. Headaches, biliousness, indigestion and constipation still continued. Our druggist recommended Carter's Little Liver Pills. He said these little vegetable pills would turn up the liver, stir up the bile, which, acting as an antiseptic, keeps the food from rotting, and poisoning the blood. They are not habit forming and thoroughly cleanse the upper and lower bowels. Laxatives fail to do this." Carter's Little Liver Pills are sold at all Druggists in the red paper package.

NEW YORK UPRISING IS LED BY MINISTER

NEW YORK, March 18.—"I believe that we are standing today at the threshold of a political revolution such as this city has not seen for a generation."

This declaration by the Rev. John Haynes Holmes, pastor of the Community church and chairman of the City Affairs Committee, typified the sentiment of many leading clergymen today as the movement for a general investigation of the government of New York City continued to gain momentum. Mr. Holmes made this statement at one of the many open meetings taking place throughout the city for the purpose of discussing municipal reform.

Mr. Holmes admitted this morning that the city affairs committee was preparing "specific charges of incompetence, gross neglect, and indifference to the welfare of our city" against Mayor James J. Walker who is heading toward California on a vacation.

The churches today appeared to be in the vanguard in the hue and cry against the Walker administration and Tammany Hall. The weight of the seven leading Protestant denominations of the city—Protestant, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, Reformed and Congregational—has been placed behind the demand for a city-wide investigation. Various civic organizations, too, have gone on record enthusiastically as being in favor of a thorough inquiry into every branch of the Walker regime. Samuel Marcus, counsel of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, which made general charges against Walker in a letter to Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, and members of the state legislature, said the society planned to take further action. He asserted that a meeting of his organization will be called within a few days.

The Rev. Mr. Holmes, in a speech before the men's club of Congregation Emanuel, raked Mayor Walker and Tammany Hall over the coals. At the same time he had a good word or two to say concerning former Governor "Al" Smith, who, during all the recent furor over the Walker administration, has discreetly remained in the background.

Mr. Holmes flayed Tammany as a center of corruption today—as in the days of "boss" Tweed. He denounced Mayor Walker as a man who "neglected" his office. He declared District Attorney Thomas C. T. Crain should be driven from office. He criticized Governor Roosevelt for his alleged reluctance to step into the situation in New York City.

"I believe that in the day of Al Smith there was something of decency to warrant the name of 'new Tammany' but the moment Governor Smith retired from public life the old Tammany came out of its lair," Rev. Holmes said. "Now, as by a lightning flash, we are made to see that the idea of the new Tammany is as false as it is foul—a black smoke-screen behind which the old foul beast may carry on his depredations."

Mr. Holmes then cited various alleged evils that exist in the city today. He referred to "a police force in conspiracy with crooks and criminals, a judiciary besmirched with corruption and shame, prostitution exploited for private benefit, respectable business robbed with all the latest 'rackets', politicians everywhere taking their graft and rake-off from the city's life." For months, Mr. Holmes said, he has been "in utter despair" over conditions in New York City.

"But now," he declared, "at last I hear as it were the rumbling of an earthquake. Let me tell you this town is waking up, and the devastation among politicians high and low during the next few months is going to be as terrible as it is glad a sight to see."

WHITE HOUSE PREPARES FOR HOOVER'S TRIP

President Announces Caribbean Cruise; Speaking Tour Arranged.

WASHINGTON, — The White House hummed today as final arrangements were made for President Hoover's battleship cruise of the Caribbean, upon which he will embark either Wednesday or Thursday.

Secretary Lawrence Richey and Captain Russell Train, the naval aide, scanned the accommodations aboard the U. S. S. Arizona to ascertain how many the party must be limited to, and Boris, the President's valet, was arranging a summer wardrobe for the 10-day jaunt through southern seas.

As the trip of the Arizona, which has just been re-conditioned, is a "shake-down" cruise and the navy desires a full complement of man power to be aboard, reservations for guests, secret service men and newspaper men are to be limited. It was considered probable that Secretary of War Hurley, who has jurisdiction over Porto Rico, would go along, as would Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, whose department controls the Virgin Islands. Richey and Train will be aboard and also Captain Joel T. Boone, the White House physician.

The cruise is going to be a stag affair. Mrs. Hoover has made plans to visit her son, Herbert, Jr., in Asheville, during the President's absence.

Mr. Hoover will occupy the quarters of Captain Charles Seymour Freeman, skipper of the Arizona, consisting of a state-room, messroom and bath.

It is planned to stop only at Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Although press of time forced the President to forgo visiting Cuba on the return from his South American good will tour while president-elect, conditions in the island republic are so unsettled at present it has been thought best to repay President Machado's visit to Washington at some later date.

The privacy Mr. Hoover will enjoy aboard the Arizona will enable him to map out the eight speeches he has scheduled for April-May and June. These speeches will be regarded in many quarters as the opening of his campaign for re-nomination and re-election.

This is particularly true of the address he will make on June 15 at Indianapolis before the Indiana Republican state editorial association. There, facing a friendly audience the President may make some statements which will have a distinct bearing on the next campaign.

Other important speeches include a Memorial Day address at Valley Forge Pa.; the long-deferred dedication of Warren G. Harding's tomb at Marion, O., and one at Springfield, Ill., at the tomb of Lincoln.

There was a distinct suspicion in political Washington the President very adroitly announced his Caribbean cruise in such a manner as to play down newspaper speculation on the significance of his making eight speeches between April 13 and June 17. Early Saturday, Walter Newton, the President's political secretary, made public the speaking itinerary.

Political writers began the preparation of articles for Sunday newspapers speculating on the prospects of his candidacy for re-nomination when, Saturday afternoon, word was passed out a "very important statement" would be forthcoming at 8 p. m.

The stories were withheld to ascertain the nature of this carefully guarded announcement, no intimation of which leaked in advance, and it developed to be that President Hoover planned to cruise the Caribbean, visiting Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Such news—was so important that the political phases of the day's developments were submerged and stress given to the Caribbean cruise.

According to Richey, plans for the trip were made at noon Saturday. Certain it is that minor attaches of the White House were just as surprised as the newspaper men when the statements were passed out. Mr. Hoover had said before inauguration he intended to visit America's possessions in the Caribbean. But there was a strong suspicion that political expediency prompted the spur-of-the-moment decision to do it at once.

A husband's spirit isn't really broken so long as he thinks he gives in because he is chivalrous.

No More "Kitchen Baths"...

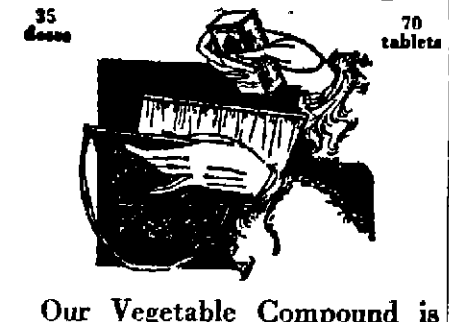

"Ow—Mom, it's too hot!" ... Baths always were either too hot or too cold in the days when wash-tub was bathtub and kitchen was bathroom. It took, literally, hours to complete a bath from the moment the first pail of water was set on the stove until the tub itself was cleaned and shoved out of sight.

Modern plumbing and the dependable service your water company offers have transformed bath night. Just another comfort water service has made possible.

NEWS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

COLUMBUS, O.—Now that the vernal season is at hand with spring only a few days distant, the care takers and laborers in the Capitol building are preparing for the annual "house cleaning." These men are mostly inmates of the big institution in West Spring street. One of them, musically inclined, has organized a colored quartette and visitors passing along the corridors and rotunda stop and listen upon hearing the blending harmonious voices in rendition of old southern melodies. Their music is really worth while and equal to that of many professionals.

PRISONER HAS A BAD OPERATION
COLUMBUS, O.—Dewey Glenn, Ohio penitentiary prisoner admitted from Hamilton-co, Jan. 20, 1927, today was reported recovering successfully from one of the most serious major operations yet performed in the institution hospital here.

Nine inches of Glenn's intestines were successfully removed by Dr. Thomas E. Jones, associate in the Crile clinic, Cleveland, and Dr. E. J. Stedem of Columbus. Glenn is serving a three to 20-year sentence for shooting to kill.

The joint sub-committee of House and Senate, authorized by resolution, has spent many extra hours the past few weeks in its work in connection with the revision and classification of various sections of the election laws of Ohio, so that their intent and purpose would be more easily understood. The result of this work will be presented to the General Assembly as one bill and probably will be favorably acted upon, due to the careful efforts and recommendations of the sub-committee, which was assisted by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, who also called to his assistance a number of election officials from Board of Elections in various parts of the state.

Treasurer of State Harry S. Day is compiling competitive bids received from state and national banks doing business in Ohio for state funds on inactive accounts. There is at present over $12,000,000, in such accounts, derived from state revenues. The funds will be placed on deposit by Treasurer Day as the banks qualify.

Dr. J. L. Clifton of the State Department of Education reports that he has been able to aid 38,314 school children with funds provided for the purpose by the state. He has purchased 16,363 pairs of shoes, clothing, dress material, underwear and stockings, expending therefore $12,414. The aid was extended forty counties, 391 separate school districts having received aid for the children. There remains in the fund the sum of $3,264.17.

Director H. G. Southard, M. D., of the State Department of Health states that from Jan. 1 to the present 1161 cases of influenza have been reported. These attacks last only a few days beginning with a running nose, a moderate degree of fever, cough, possibly some sore throat and general aches and pains. Recovery leaves the patient in a more or less weakened condition physically. Mother Nature's signal that one's usual activities should not be attempted too soon, for quite often such an attempt ends abruptly in pneumonia or leaves one with a middle ear or sinus infection. There is no specific treatment; rest in bed for a few days under the supervision of a physician and it may prevent serious after effects.

Relatives of prisoners confined in the Ohio Penitentiary may visit them once a month on either Monday, Wednesday or Friday, the visiting hours being between 12:30 o'clock and 3:30. No other visitors than relatives are permitted. The "talkies," show each Saturday in the big Auditorium, are still the sensation of the hour and the inmates truly enjoy them to the utmost. Warden Preston E. Thomas has 4,720 men to feed every day. Keeps the kitchen force busy.

BANK NOW IN WALKER CASE

Mayor Jimmy's Allies Claim Charges Are Effort To Cover Bank's Closing

NEW YORK, March 18.—Mayor J. J. Walker's friends and political allies including Tammany Hall rallied to his defense today against the "hue and cry" for a legislative investigation of the government of New York City.

They instituted a vigorous counter attack against the civic and church organization which for the past week or more have been clamoring for a sweeping inquiry into the alleged "corrupt" Walker administration.

"A plot against Mayor Walker" is the counter charge of the mayor's defenders.

Charles F. Kerrigan, assistant to the mayor, who at the moment is the leading spokesman for the Walker administration insists that the clamor against Mayor Walker was inspired by a desire on the part of influential persons to prevent the effective prosecution of officers and directors of the defunct Bank of United States.

Kerrigan declared today that he is willing to go before a grand jury with proof of his charges. He said he was prepared to name persons of high position who he asserted will "stop at nothing" to prevent the truth concerning the recent closing of the Bank of United States, $160,000,000 institution, from becoming known.

COMMON SENSE IN LAWN CARE

A beautiful lawn is something to be desired and can be had with a little attention and forethought. Lime on your lawn does more harm than good. Grass prefers soil slightly sour or acid. Lime promotes weed growth while acid fertilizers such as ammonium sulphate promotes grass growth and retards weed growth. Ammonium sulphate can be applied three times a year with great benefit.

Ordinary barn manure does more harm than good. It is unsightly, full of weed seed, and while it promotes grass growth, you damage the new growth when you remove the surplus of straw left by the manure and so much stable manure now contains excelsior and saw dust, neither of which is good for lawns. Pulverized sheep manure is not expensive, contains no weed seed, furnishes a fine mulch and there is nothing to be removed and it is easily applied. Weed seed in pulverized sheep manure are sterilized by application of heat.

Lawns that are kept cut need to be reseeded and a small amount applied each year is desirable. Application is best in April or September.

Terraces need special grasses that root deeply, while shady places need different grasses from that used on the exposed lawn.

Your florist carries sheep manure bone meal and can furnish special seed mixtures for terraces or shady places and will be glad to advise with you concerning any lawn problem.

Early in April your lawn should be rolled. You can not roll the lawn too much provided it is not rolled when too wet. It is too wet when soil sticks to the roller.

Cut the grass often and leave the cutting lay, they make a top mulch and protect the grass roots from the hot sun and hold moisture.

Do not sprinkle the lawn. If the weather is dry, soak the lawn; sprinkling only encourages the grass roots to develop near the surface where they burn out easily. Ammonium sulphate applied to the lawn gives quick action because of its nitrogen content and bone meal is a long time fertilizer spreading its benefits over two or three years. Grass must be fed if it does its best. A little care and very little expense will make your lawn something to be justly proud of.

BOY IS KILLED RIDING FREIGHT

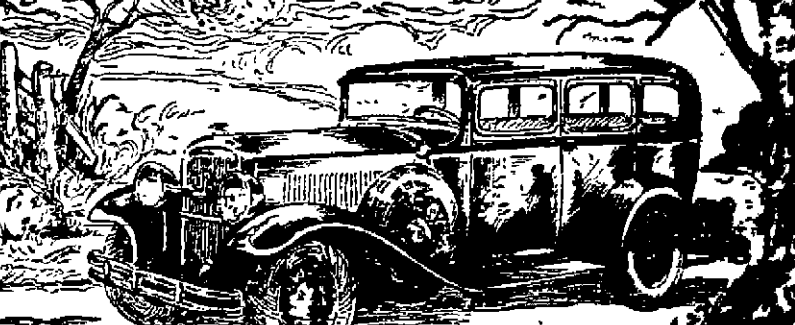

HAMILTON, O.—Identification today of a 13-year-old boy who was killed when he attempted to catch a ride on a moving freight train, as Thomas Downie, brought out a general warning against such practices by Coroner Edward Cook of Butler-co.

Coroner Cook declared that many boys in this district had been making it a sport to "hook rides" on freight trains.

Can You Find 5 Faces?
People who were riding in the auto above got out of the car. Their faces are shown in odd places about the picture. Some faces are upside down. Others look sideways, some look straight at you. If you can pick out 5 or more faces, mark them, clip the picture and send to me together with your name and address. Sharp eyes will find them. Can you?

We are giving more than $5,000 in 140 prizes, in a great new plan of advertising our Buicks. Also thousands of dollars in special rewards. In a former campaign Mr. C. E. McGraw In Need of Reserves

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 13.—John McGraw has expressed the opinion that his Giants have an excellent chance to win the National League pennant that has eluded their efforts for six successive seasons, but a more impartial if less expert study of the situation that presents itself here at the training camp indicates that fortune must bestow its favors upon them if they are to be successful.

For insofar as established playing quality is concerned, the team differs little from that which finished third to the St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs last fall. Young players, heretofore untried, will have to provide the strength needed to carry the club into the championship class.

This new strength will have to be distributed over several departments of play, too. At least one more winning pitcher must be developed, an outfielder of top quality, and a couple of capable reserves. The pitching need is most pronounced, but the improvement in the other departments is essential too. A failure anywhere can upset McGraw's plans completely—hence the need of fortune's favor.

The 1930 team listed four winning pitchers, Fred Fitzsimmons, Carl Hubbell, Willie Walker and Clarence Mitchell, but only three are to be counted on for regular service. The veteran Mitchell isn't strong enough to work in regular turn and since four starters are necessary McGraw must develop a replacement here.

A big squad of pitchers, a couple of them veterans, are bidding for the nomination. Leroy Parmelee, listed on the New York roster for two years is believed to have the best chance. He has a wider natural equipment than any other pitcher on the staff, but his development thus far has been retarded by a lack of control. To meet requirements, that fact must be corrected.

Veteran holdovers from last year are Pete Donohue, Joe Genewich, Joe Hevin, and "Hub" Pruet. Donohue was a star at Cincinnati for several years but fell by the wayside quality only when he lost his fast ball. His trick slow ball stuff possesses winning quality only when it serves as a change of pace.

Genewich and Pruet have never been consistent winners and Hevin serves best in relief roles.

Newcomers include John Berly from Rochester, Willard Morrell from Shreveport, Jim Chaplin from San Antonio, Roscoe Shepherd from Memphis, and Ray Lucas. Berly won sixteen games at Rochester last year, and is to receive thorough trial.

To solve the outfield problem McGraw has decided upon a daring experiment. He intends to move Freddy Lindstrom from third base to center field. Freddy hit 380 last year, and a batter of that quality will reduce the advantage enjoyed last by the St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Chicago and Brooklyn outfield combinations.

The talented Mel Ott and Freddy Leach will of course retain their positions in right and left fields. Several minor league hopefuls, including Jim Moore from San Antonio, Jim Ryan and Arthur Mansfield from the Central league, and Tom Nash from Asheville, as well as the 1930 holdovers, Ethan Allen, "Chick" Fullis and Harry Rosenberg, will bid for the reserve places.

The removal of Lindstrom to the outfield presents two youngsters, John Vergez from Oakland, and Urban Pickering from Birmingham, with an unexpected chance. Vergez is a smooth fielder and Coast league observers predict that he will make the grade. Pickering hit .350 in the Southern league last year.

The rest of the infield is "set." Terry, Hughie Critz and Travis Jackson composed three-fourths of the best infield in baseball last year and nobody here can even threaten their jobs. Eddie Marshall, and Sam Leslie, the latter a .400 hitter in the minors, are in line for the utility places.

The catching staff is top grade as it stands. Shanty Hogan and Bob O'Farrel, who are to divide the heavy work, are entirely adequate. Frank Healy, a promising kid from Bridgeport will be assigned to the bullpen.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS GAMES CONTINUED

Circleville high school interclass basketball tournament was resumed at the high school gym Wednesday afternoon. Freshman and junior girls were to tangle and freshman-junior boys were to play at 4:45 p. m.

Last Friday sophomore girls and boys, senior girls and junior boys were victorious.

The tournament will be continued at the high school until two rounds have been completed with the finals expected to be reached Friday evening, March 27.

SYNDICALISM IS STILL LAW

Bill To Repeal Communistic Statute Voted Down By House By 10 To 102.

COLUMBUS, O., March 13.—Ohio's criminal syndicalism act will retain its place on the statute books for two years more at least. Efforts to bring about its repeal at the present session of the state legislature were at an end today.

By the decisive vote of 10 to 102, the house Monday night defeated the Silbert bill which sought to repeal the syndicalism law enacted at the close of the World war.

This state provides penalties for persons convicted of advocating crime, sabotage, violence, or unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing industrial, or political reform.

Fervid debate preceded the roll call which sounded the death knell of the bill.

Rep. Joseph H. Silbert (R) of Cleveland, author of the ill-fated measure, was the only speaker who supported it. Scions who voiced their vigorous objection to the bill included Representatives R. A. Pollick (R), Canton; Albert L. Daniels (R), Greenfield; Mrs. Myrna B. Hanna (R) Bowling Green; Julius W. Headington (D), Mt. Vernon, and W. T. Roberts (D), Bridgeport.

The most serious mistake on earth is being too serious.

SEND PROBER TO INVESTIGATE GAS

COLUMBUS, O.—An investigation representing the state public utilities commission will be sent to Fremont, probably tomorrow, to probe the gas situation there, Ira Sprankle, superintendent of the investigation division of the commission, announced today.

The probe is the outcome of allegations by citizens of Fremont that they are being "systematically robbed" by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company. Fremont's city council recently passed a resolution by unanimous vote to ask the aid of the utilities commission and an investigation by state authorities.

Gas bills for nearly every home in Fremont during February were approximately double January bills, according to charges leveled against the gas company.

The investigator who will conduct the probe for the utilities commission has not been decided upon, Sprankle said. He declared the investigator would be chosen sometime later in the day and sent to Fremont tomorrow.

MORE MEDICINE TO AID BARROW

POINT BARROW, Alaska, Mar. 17.—Eight new cases of diphtheria have been reported here since Friday, it was disclosed today by Dr. Henry Griest as steps were being taken to combat the epidemic raging in Arctic regions.

A new supply of anti-toxin serum has arrived here by airplane from Fairbanks and sixty additional suspected cases have already been given the serum. Dr. Griest and a nurse are making a house to house examination of residents of the settlement.

IDENTIFY MAN AS BUS ROBBER

Millard Lea Rahberts of Portsmouth, was identified late Monday by Charles Steele, Columbus, as one of the gunmen who held up and robbed a Blue and Grey bus near Portsmouth on Feb. 27 and took $800 from 11 passengers. Identification was made in Mansfield where Rahberts was arrested on a robbery charge.

Steele was forced to stop his bus when two of the three robbers who boarded it at Columbus covered him with guns. They escaped in a car driven by an accomplice.

The Commission stated in conclusion that no one should come to Washington expecting to receive a Federal position except in response to a definite offer of employment from a government establishment.

Another way to become cheerful is to visit the country and observe the acres and acres of grass you won't have to mow.

SLAYER OF GIRL
BEING GUARDED

EBENSBURG, Pa.—Harry Starchak, 28, alleged confessed slayer of seven-year-old Betty Mowry, was rushed under heavy guard to the Johnstown jail today when friends and neighbors of the girl's parents threatened mob violence against the prisoner.

His anger inflamed as details of Starchak's revolting alleged confession filtered through to the outside, a crowd of men and women surged close to the jail where Starchak was being held. State police drove the crowd back, but an undercurrent of resentment was evident.

Police held a hurried conference and decided on the quick dash by automobile from Ebsenburg to Johnstown, twenty miles away.

COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 18.—A delegation of 27 members of the graduating class of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Orphan home at Xenia paid their respect to Gov. George White at the state house here today.

The boys, who will graduate next June, spent the day in Columbus making an inspection tour of industrial establishments. They also visited the Ohio penitentiary.

MANY MORE NEGROES SEEK
HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATIONS

Education appears to be growing in popularity among the negroes. Members of this race residing in 18 southern states where separate records are kept for white and negro schools are found to be taking more advantage of opportunities offered to advance their learning today than they did 10 years ago.

Negro high school enrollment has increased 177.8 per cent during the decade, according to the findings of a statistical study announced by the Office of Education. An advance of 10.8 per cent in enrollment of negro children 5 to 17 years of age was also made during this period, it is shown by David T. Blose, assistant statistician and author of the summary which is published as Pamphlet 14, 1930, "Statistics of the Negro Race, 1927-28."

In 18 southern states more than 2,290,000 negro children are reported in schools. Public schools of the northern and western states enroll about 300,000.

Southern states included in the Office of Education survey are Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Steady progress is being made in many of these states to overcome difficult educational conditions. Better buildings are being constructed, better qualified teachers employed, and advance has been recorded in number of courses offered.

In 12 southern states from 1920 to 1928 first grade attendance in negro schools decreased slightly, but in 1928 nearly three times as many negroes were attending the first year of high school as attended in 1920, and a corresponding increase of more than five times as many students in fourth year high school classes was reported. During the 1927-28 school year 2,201,221 negroes were enrolled in kindergarten and elementary schools of the United States. High school enrollment was 92,624.

Negro college attendance is also greater than in the past, the Office of Education study shows. Although Houston, Texas is the only city reporting a public junior college for negroes, there are 17 land-grant institutions and teacher-training schools. North Carolina College for Negroes, Durham, N. C., is the only college for negroes supported entirely at state expense.

77 REBELS TO BE SENTENCED

JACA, Spain, March 17.—Sentences will probably be pronounced today on 77 rebels tried by court-martial for the December garrison uprising here.

While death sentences and life imprisonment has been demanded by the prosecution for a large number of the defendants, there was a strong possibility that the court would be lenient in meting out punishment.

Petitions have poured in from all parts of the country urging the government to extend clemency to the rebels. Large crowds have followed proceedings of the court-martial closely.

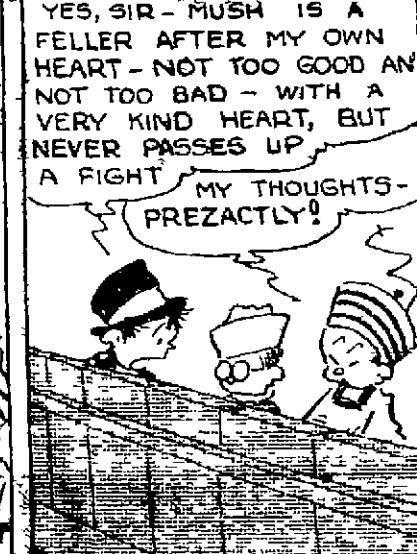

As a tip to President Hoover, the Lord made the world without the help of commission.

Dry Candidate Is Board's Aim

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Forewarned of a prohibition row in both Republican and Democratic parties, the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals has launched a campaign to obtain 5,000,000 signatures to a pledge to support only a bone-dry presidential candidate in 1932.

Engineered by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary and acting head of the Methodist body, the drive is calculated to get the voters to sign on the dotted line to oppose any presidential candidate, Republican or Democratic, running on a wet platform, or any candidate personally wet.

The work of obtaining the signatures will start early this summer according to Wilson, and will be carried on through Methodist unit workers all over the country. "We can get it, believe," he said, "5,000,000 of the approximately 6,000,000 Methodists in the country to agree to the desired action."

The board hopes, Wilson revealed, to spike any attempts to commit the Democratic party to a wet plank in its platform or to nominate a wet candidate. The dry campaign of the Methodists against former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, Democratic presidential candidate in 1928, was small compared to the drive which Wilson plans to launch this year, the Methodist chieftain revealed.

"We have an organization with experience, which can make our efforts in 1928 look small in comparison with the work we plan during the next two years," he said.

"The prohibition issue has no place in the Democratic platform. We expect to pledge enough voters within the next two years to block any wet tendencies of the party in 1932. We will show the party beforehand it would only commit political suicide by adopting a wet platform or running a wet candidate."

Wilson said the drive would in no way be directed against religious beliefs.

"We don't care what religion a man has," he said. "No one would be happier than I to vote for a man of another religion than my own. We are fighting alcohol. Religion didn't defeat Al Smith in 1928. It was his prohibition attitude."

"And any man who runs on a wet platform or who is personally wet in 1932 will be defeated."

Wilson interpreted the recent Democratic national committee meeting here as a move on the part of John J. Raskob, Democratic national committee chairman, to nominate Smith again in 1932. "Such a move," he added, "is defeat before it is begun. John J. Raskob is head of the Democratic party machine. John J. Raskob may have a mortgage on the party machine—but John J. Raskob has no mortgage on the votes of the millions of Americans who will flock to the polls in 1932."
